Stockholm April 15, 2019

WE WILL COME BACK STRONGER 2020 WITH A NEW VERSION OF SLCC!

The competition organization for Europe's largest and finest women's curling competition (SLCC) is aiming higher. We want to reach out to a larger audience, as well as attract more sponsors and media to see the value of lifting an already successful sport to new heights.

In order to achieve this, we will take a tournament break in 2019. We will rebuild our structure and content, involve more motivated and supportive sponsors and capture media interest to help bring the world's most TV friendly sports into the future.

How the tournament will look like 2020 is not clear yet, but we will come back even stronger, more fun and more challenging - we promise!

We really hope to see you again next year!

Rolf Wikström,
Chairman SLCC
